Dear Matt:

I enjoyed the other evening and feel that we are making some progress in shaping up our ideas.

Either today or tomorrow, I expect to send to you a collection of tentative summaries of various kinds which should be helpful.

Sprague expects to finish up in State by the end of the month, so that about August 1 he will be ready to go over to the Navy. I hope that you can arrange to come down here before then for a preliminary meeting with Inglis. If you cannot come, do you want me to go ahead and make the necessary arrangements? I know Inglis and do not think there would be too much difficulty, although I am sure it would be preferable if you could do this yourself.

Sincerely yours,

Bob
